CHAS. SEDELMAYER, Publisher and Art-dealer, Paris, has the richest stock of original pictures in Europe.

His gallery includes about 1000 works by Old Masters, of which this Catalogue describes only a portion, and about 500 pictures by living artists, and painters of the Barbizon School.

He publishes every year a selection of fine and important plates, of which only a small number of proofs are printed.

He has just issued the last volume of a most extensive book in 8 volumes on Rembrandt, containing reproductions of all the pictures of this master; the text by Doctor W. Bode, Director of the Berlin Gallery.

The prospectus of this book, and illustrated catalogues of other publications, to be had at CHAS. SEDELMAYER'S, 6, rue de La Rochefoucauld, Paris.

PRESS OPINIONS

The Times, London, May 24, 1914.

The volume is a most valuable addition to the literature of the subject. It is a work of great merit and interest, and is particularly well adapted for the use of students and scholars in the study of the history of the subject.

The Times, London, April 2, 1914.

We commend this work as a wonderful result of modern reproductive technique and the author's skill. It is a most valuable addition to the literature of the subject and is particularly well adapted for the use of students and scholars in the study of the history of the subject.

The Times, London, January 7, 1914.

The volume is a most valuable addition to the literature of the subject. It is a work of great merit and interest, and is particularly well adapted for the use of students and scholars in the study of the history of the subject. The volume as a whole, like its predecessor, represents all that scholarship, care and money can do towards the creation of a worthy monument to Rembrandt's art.

The Times, London, March 15, 1914.

The Daily Telegraph, London, February 22, 1914.

The work will be a valuable addition to the series of the very powerful literature.

American Magazine, Paris, March 1, 1914.

A magnificent work of art, in which no less a connoisseur than Mr. Charles Sedelmeyer has succeeded in reproducing the art of the great Dutch painter. The volume is a most valuable addition to the literature of the subject and is particularly well adapted for the use of students and scholars in the study of the history of the subject. The volume as a whole, like its predecessor, represents all that scholarship, care and money can do towards the creation of a worthy monument to Rembrandt's art. The volume is a most valuable addition to the literature of the subject and is particularly well adapted for the use of students and scholars in the study of the history of the subject.

The Collector, New York, April 15, 1897.

Nothing has yet been done, either in honour of any single artist or for the recording of his works, to even approach « The Complete Work of Rembrandt » which is published by M. Sedelmeyer, of Paris.... It comes in the shape of a fat folio, of the most sumptuous form of artistic embellishment and typography, and, entirely apart from its magnificence as an art work, is a book of reference no true collector can fail to appreciate.

The Art Amateur, New York, September, 1899.

We have already spoken in terms of the highest praise of the first two volumes of this magnificent work. The third is, if possible, still more remarkable. In it, Dr. Bode, as biographer, has reached one of the most interesting periods of Rembrandt's artistic career, that immediately succeeding his marriage, and leads with a series of biblical and mythological compositions — and the portraits and studies connected with them — including some of the painter's acknowledged master-pieces.

We need not expatiate on the importance of Dr. Bode's « Rembrandt » to collectors. It promises to be the first really adequate representation of a great painter's work. Mr. Sedelmeyer's courage, taste and judgment cannot be too liberally acknowledged. He is producing a monograph, which will be of inestimable advantage to all serious students of art, and one which we are entitled to hope will be accepted as a standard for other publications of the kind. It would certainly be difficult to imagine anything more perfect than the way in which the work, literary, artistic, and mechanical, has, thus far, been done. The text is, in its completeness and reliability, worthy of the great artist to which it is devoted, and the illustrations, reproduced by the heliogravure process, are worthy of the text.

The Art Amateur, New York, June, 1900.

Of this great work, issued in magnificent style by Mr. Sedelmeyer, the fourth volume, dealing with one of the most important periods of the artist's life, that included between the dates 1637-45, has just been issued.

.....
As in the other volumes, previously reviewed, the reproductions include every picture belonging to the period under consideration.

.....
It will take four more volumes and a supplement to finish the work, making it the most extended and the most complete literary and artistic monument ever built up to the fame of any painter.

The Times, London, February 14, 1902.

This great work is marching towards its conclusion with perfect regularity, and before long we shall be able to congratulate the editor and publisher upon the completion of a book which is absolutely unique among the tributes which scholarship and modern reproductive processes have paid to art.
